

Fostering Inclusion at Auburn University

Camp War Eagle

AUBURN UNIVERSITY
Office of Inclusion and Diversity

Agenda

- Why Diversity?
- Office of Inclusion and Diversity (OID)
- Stay Connected!
- Q&A

Why Diversity

- Diversity drives creativity & innovation.
- Diversity produces higher rates of productivity & performance.
- Diversity promotes personal growth.

Office of Inclusion & Diversity (OID)

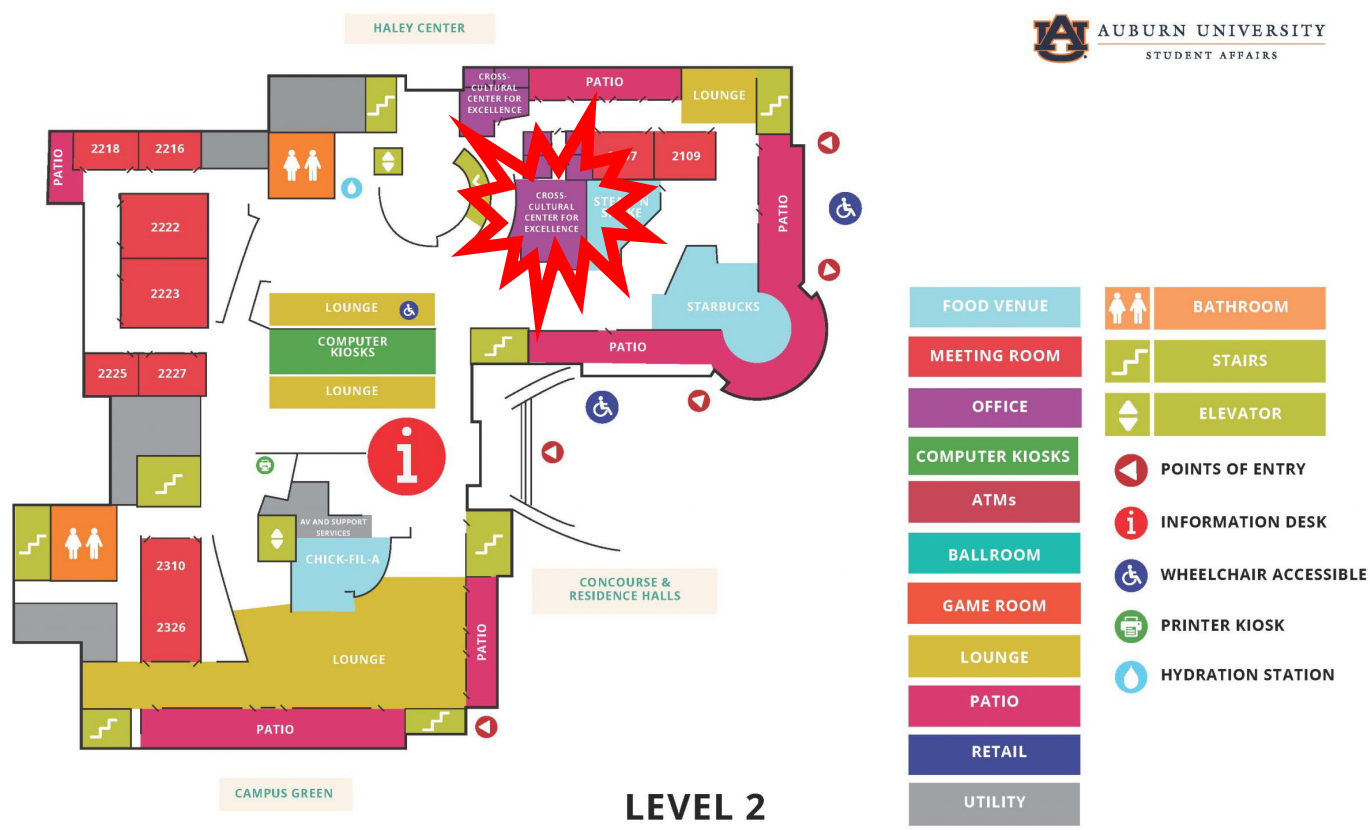

The Office of Inclusion and Diversity serves as a vital resource for building unity, equity, and inclusion in the Auburn University community.

- Cross Cultural Center for Excellence
- Diversity Education and Engagement
- Women's Initiatives and Gender Equity

Cross Cultural Center for Excellence (CCCE)

2101 Harold D. Melton Student Center

Cross Cultural Center for Excellence (CCCE)

- Student Achievement
- Student Belonging
- LGBTQ+ & Women's Initiatives

Student Achievement

Tiger Excellence Scholars Program (TESP)

- Comprehensive high-impact social, cultural, and academic program serving over 300 students.

Cultural Enrichment Excursions

- One-day & university-break long cultural experiential learning opportunities

Celebration of Excellence in Diversity

- Celebrates all underrepresented students graduating each year; family and loved ones invited.

T1GER Network

- Events, networking, and support for first generation college students

AUBURN UNIVERSITY
Office of Inclusion and Diversity

Student Belonging

Cultural & Heritage Month Programming

- Programming to celebrate national cultural & heritage months featured in a monthly calendar

MC²

- Multicultural student organization community

Leadership Development

- Opportunities to engage in leadership exploration and development through a cross cultural lens

Tiger Retreat

- Welcome weekend program to connects students with upperclassmen, resources, and university traditions

LGBTQ+ & Women's Initiatives

Campus Pride Center (Hayley Center 1439)

- The Pride Center will offer services to create a safe and affirming spaces for LGBTQIA+ community at AU.

Women's History Month and Women's Leadership Conference

- Women's History Month celebrates the courage of women in past generations and to celebrate how their efforts and bravery afforded women the opportunities and freedoms they have today.

Campus Pride and Lavender Celebration

- Celebrates LGBTQIA+ students graduating each year; family and loved ones invited.

Office of Inclusion & Diversity (OID)

The Office of Inclusion and Diversity serves as a vital resource for building unity, equity, and inclusion in the Auburn University community.

- Cross Cultural Center for Excellence
- Diversity Education and Engagement
- Women's Initiatives and Gender Equity

Diversity Education & Engagement

- Provides education and consultative services to units, departments and organizations within Auburn University to support efforts to create and sustain a productive, vibrant, collaborative, and welcoming environment for all.

Women's Initiatives and Gender Equity

- Represents the concerns of and supports all Auburn University women including faculty, staff, students and administrative and professional personnel. WIGE provides programming and strategically collaborates and guides efforts to facilitate the recruitment, hiring (for employees), retention, and professional development of women by addressing issues that affect well-being and professional needs of women across campus.

Stay Connected!

@auburnoid

AUBURN UNIVERSITY
Office of Inclusion and Diversity

